GENERAL INFORMATION

In this Information Statement we refer to Spherix Incorporated, a Delaware corporation, as the “Company,” “we,” “us,” or “our.”

The Information Statement is furnished in connection with an action by written consent (the “Written Consent”) of shareholders of the Company owning 451,727 shares of our common stock, or approximately 65%, of the issued and outstanding common stock (the “Majority Shareholders”). The actions taken by the Written Consent will not become effective until at least 20 business days after the Information Statement is sent or given to our shareholders in accordance with the requirements of the rules of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). The close of business on December 17, 2012, is the record date (the “Record Date”) for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of the action by the Written Consent.

Pursuant to the Written Consent, the Majority Shareholders ratified the sale of all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the Company’s wholly-owned subsidiary, Spherix Consulting, Inc., to Chromadex, Inc. (the “Action”).

The Action was unanimously approved by our Board of Directors on November 29, 2012.

This Information Statement contains a brief summary of the material aspects of the Action approved by the Board and ratified by the Majority Shareholders.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

ABOUT THE INFORMATION STATEMENT

What is the Purpose of the Information Statement?

This Information Statement is being furnished to you pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act to notify our shareholders of a certain corporate action taken by the Majority Shareholders pursuant to the Written Consent. In order to eliminate the costs and management time involved in obtaining proxies and in order to effect the Action as early as possible to accomplish the purposes hereafter described, the Board elected to seek the written consent of the Majority Shareholders to reduce the costs and implement the Action in a timely manner.

Who is Entitled to Notice?

Each outstanding share of common stock as of record on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of the action to be taken pursuant to the Written Consent.

What Vote is Required to Approve the Proposal?

The affirmative vote of a majority of the common stock outstanding on the Record Date is required for approval of the Action. As of the Record Date, the Company had 691,463 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. Each share of common stock entitles its holder to one vote on each matter submitted to the shareholders. However, because the Majority Shareholders, holding a majority of the outstanding common stock as of the close of business on the Record Date, voted in favor of the Action, no other shareholder consents will be obtained in connection with this Information Statement.

Parties to the Transaction

Spherix Incorporated

Westmoreland Building #503
Bethesda, Maryland 20817

Spherix is a Delaware corporation which has operated in two segments, Biospherics and Health Sciences Consulting. Biospherics seeks to develop proprietary pharmaceutical products. Health Sciences Consulting provides technical and regulatory consulting services to food, consumer products, biotechnology and pharmaceutical companies, as well as providing technical support to the Biospherics segment. The business of Biospherics has been conducted in a subsidiary named Biospherics, Incorporated. The Health Sciences Consulting business has been conducted in a subsidiary named Spherix Consulting.

Chromadex, Inc.
10005 Muirlands Boulevard
Irvine, California 92618
(949) 419-0288

Chromadex is a Delaware corporation which is a natural products company that provides proprietary, science-based solutions and ingredients to the dietary supplement, food and beverage, animal health, cosmetic and pharmaceutical industries.

Background of and Reasons for the Transaction

In recent years, the Company has funded its business operations via periodic sales of its capital stock and has operated at a substantial loss. A number of factors have caused these equity raises to be less frequent and provide less operating capital than in prior periods. First, the price of the Company's common stock has consistently declined. Second, the float of the Company stock has consistently decreased. Further, in mid-2010, the Company determined that it could no longer continue to pursue its Phase 3 efforts to bring tagatose to market as a diabetes drug. At that time, the Company announced that it would change direction and begin to develop a new drug to combat high triglycerides and that it would commence animal studies and hopefully move into Phase 1 tests. Thereafter, the Company began to experience increased difficulties in raising equity. The Company believes that the market has become increasingly unwilling to fund the new development effort which would likely take several years before generating anything of value to the Company's stockholders. As a result of the foregoing, despite repeated efforts by the Company to seek financing to fund its research and development and consulting businesses, the Company has been unable to secure such funding.

In the course of these cash raising efforts, the Company came into contact with certain investors who, while unwilling to fund the ongoing businesses, were supportive of exploring new business ventures. After various discussions, this resulted in the early November 2012 sale of common stock and warrants. The investment was predicated on the basis that the Company would examine all of its strategic alternatives, including a fresh look at the existing businesses as well as the possibility of entering into new businesses via acquisitions. Two new members of the Board of Directors were added to facilitate this strategic analysis.

The expanded Board quickly determined that the future for the Company would not include continuation of the consulting business. This business adds substantial direct and related administrative and overhead costs to the Company and the Board concluded that these costs should be quickly discontinued while the Board continued its strategic analysis. The Board further concluded that it would be very difficult to obtain any substantial consideration in a sale of the consulting business. As with most consulting practices, the intrinsic value resides with the key individuals. The Board consulted with a financial advisor within the last two (2) years concerning this matter and was advised that a sale would not likely bring any substantial payment. The Board recently engaged a separate valuation firm to provide an updated review of this matter and was advised that Spherix Consulting had no measurable economic value.

The Board next considered how best to dispose of Spherix Consulting. The Board considered simply discontinuing the business but was concerned that this action might expose Spherix Consulting and, potentially the Company, to claims of breach of contract from various entities as Spherix Consulting is a party to many master service agreements which obligates it to provide services to clients when requested. In addition, the Company would incur substantial costs and expenses in winding down the consulting business. Accordingly, the Board determined that it would be best to sell Spherix Consulting, if possible, to a third party through the sale of all of Spherix Consulting's outstanding capital stock.

In the course of the Company's search for additional equity capital, it encountered Chromadex. At that time, Chromadex indicated an interest in working with and/or acquiring Spherix Consulting. In view of the foregoing, the Board concluded that Chromadex might be the only buyer in a position to quickly close a transaction and thereby alleviate the Company's ongoing costs of maintaining the consulting business.

The Company's investment banker contacted Chromadex and the parties negotiated a sale of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Spherix Consulting.

Following the Sale, the Company will continue as a public company. At present, it will continue to pursue appropriate research and development of potential drug candidates through the Company's Biospherics Incorporated subsidiary. As previously announced, the Board is conducting a strategic analysis to determine whether to continue with the drug development business or whether to enter into a new line of business.

Recommendation of our Board of Directors

Our Board of Directors has determined that the terms and conditions of the Sale Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Sale, are fair to, expedient and in the best interest of Spherix and its stockholders. This determination was made by a unanimous vote of all of the members of our board of directors (with Ms. Kruger abstaining as she became an employee of Spherix Consulting and with Mr. Kesner abstaining. Mr. Kesner informed the Board of a pre-existing relationship with ChromaDex as counsel). Ms. Kruger has resigned as a member of our Board of Directors. Messrs. Melissaratos, Peter and Lodder have also resigned from our Board of Directors.

Material Tax Consequences of the Transaction

The following is a summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the Sale. It is based upon the Internal Revenue Code, regulations (whether final, temporary or proposed), rulings and judicial decisions now in effect, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. The summary does not purport to be a complete analysis of all federal income tax consequences of the Sale, nor does it address any aspect of state, local, foreign or other tax laws.

The Sale by Spherix is entirely a corporate action. Therefore, the Sale will not be taxable to our stockholders.

The Sale will be treated as a sale of corporate stock in exchange for cash. The Sale is a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is anticipated that Spherix's tax attributes may be available to offset all or a portion of any federal income tax liability resulting from the Sale.

TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH REQUIREMENTS IMPOSED BY THE IRS UNDER TREASURY CIRCULAR 230, WE INFORM YOU THAT (1) ANY DISCUSSION OF U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ISSUES CONTAINED IN THIS STATEMENT (INCLUDING ANY ATTACHMENTS), UNLESS OTHERWISE SPECIFICALLY STATED, WAS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN TO BE USED, AND CANNOT BE USED, FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING PENALTIES UNDER THE UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE CODE, (2) SUCH DISCUSSION WAS WRITTEN TO SUPPORT THE PROMOTION OR MARKETING OF THE MATTERS ADDRESSED BY THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT AND (3) EACH STOCKHOLDER SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED UPON ITS PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.

Absence of Appraisal Rights

Delaware law appraisal rights are not provided to stockholders in connection with this transaction.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Sale

Members of our Board of Directors and our executive officers may have interests in the Sale that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of our stockholders generally. Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the Sale Agreement.

We have entered into employment agreements with each of our executive officers that provide for severance compensation if such executive's employment is terminated within specified time periods following a "change in control". We have determined that closing of the Sale constitutes a "change in control".

Pursuant to their respective employment agreements, Claire L. Kruger, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer, Robert Lodder, our President (and also a director), Robert L. Clayton, our Chief Financial Officer and Katherine Brailer, our Corporate Secretary and Director of Administrative Services, each became entitled to the following severance payments plus up to one year of COBRA benefits:

Claire Kruger	$286,443
Robert Lodder	$233,398
Robert Clayton	$212,180
Katherine Brailer	$127,308

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Following the Sale, the Company will continue to indemnify each of its current and former directors and officers to the extent required under Delaware law, its Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, and its Amended and Restated By-laws.

In addition, the Company intends to maintain its current directors' and officers' insurance policy.

Regulatory Approvals

No regulating approvals or consents are required to affect the Sale.

Summary of Material Terms of Sale Agreement

The summary of the material terms of the Sale Agreement below and elsewhere in this Information Statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Sale Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this Information Statement as Annex A and which we incorporate by reference into this document. This summary may not contain all of the information about the Sale Agreement that is important to you.

The Sale Agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms, and we recommend that you read carefully the Sale Agreement in its entirety. Except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties hereto with respect to the Sale, we do not intend for its text to be a source of factual, business or operational information about us. The Sale Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants that are qualified and limited, including by information in the disclosure schedule referenced in the Sale Agreement that the parties delivered in connection with the execution of the Sale Agreement. Representations and warranties may be used as a tool to allocate risks between the respective parties to the Sale Agreement, including where the parties do not have complete knowledge of all facts, instead of establishing such matters as facts. Furthermore, the representations and warranties may be subject to different standards of materially applicable to the contracting parties, which may differ from what may be viewed as material to stockholders. These representations may or may not have been accurate as of any specific date and do not purport to be accurate as of the date of this information statement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the Sale Agreement and subsequent developments or new information qualifying a representation or warranty may have been included in this information statement. You should not rely on its representations, warranties or covenants as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Spherix or any of its affiliates.

Principal Provisions of the Sale Agreement

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Sale Agreement, Chromadex purchased all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Spherix Consulting.

- the operations of Spherix Consulting prior to closing.

Except for a limited number of representations and warranties, our maximum liability for indemnification claims made by Chromadex and the other indemnified parties is capped at fifty percent (50%) of the Purchase Price.

Our indemnification obligations under the Sale Agreement generally terminate eighteen (18) months after closing.

With the exception of Cede & Co., the holder of record for certain brokerage firms and banks, no other person is known by us to own beneficially more than 5% of our outstanding Common Stock.

In December 2010, the Company and American Stock Transfer and Trust Company, LLC, as Rights Agent, entered into a First Amendment to Rights Agreement to amend the Rights Agreement dated as of February 16, 2001 between the Company and the Rights Agent. The Amendment extends the term of the Rights Agreement. The Rights Agreement was scheduled to expire on December 31, 2010. The Amendment extends the term of the Rights Agreement through December 31, 2012.

The Rights Agreement provides each Stockholder of record a dividend distribution of one “right” for each outstanding share of the Company’s Common Stock. Rights become exercisable at the earlier of ten days following: (1) a public announcement that an acquirer has purchased or has the right to acquire 10% or more of the Company’s Common Stock, or (2) the commencement of a tender offer which would result in an offeror beneficially owning 10% or more of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company. All rights held by an acquirer or offeror expire on the announced acquisition date, and all rights expire at the close of business on December 31, 2012. Each right entitles a Stockholder to acquire, at a stated purchase price, 1/100 of a share of the Company's preferred stock, which carries voting and dividend rights similar to one share of its Common Stock. Alternatively, a right holder may elect to purchase for the stated price an equivalent number of shares of the Company's Common Stock at a price per share equal to one-half of the average market price for a specified period. In lieu of the stated purchase price, a right holder may elect to acquire one-half of the Common Stock available under the second option. The purchase price of the preferred stock fractional amount is subject to adjustment for certain events as described in the Agreement. At the discretion of a majority of the Board and within a specified time period, the Company may redeem all of the rights at a price of $0.001 per right. The Board may also amend any provisions of the Agreement prior to exercise.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

In 2007, the Compensation Committee hired an outside company, Equilar, Inc., to compare the total compensation of our executives to the total compensation of fourteen (14) companies identified by Equilar, Inc. to be peer companies to us. The Equilar Report on Executive Compensation showed that our executives are not compensated at the same level as colleagues in peer companies. Based upon our fiscal health, however, it has been determined by the Compensation Committee that no special efforts should be made to bring executive total compensation to equivalent levels of those in peer companies. The Compensation Committee recommended to the Board the salary adjustments for our executive officers. In 2011, the Board approved annual salaries for Dr. Lodder and Mr. Clayton of $233,398, and $212,180, respectively.

The following Summary of Compensation table sets forth the compensation paid by the Company during the two years ended December 31, 2011, to all Executive Officers earning in excess of $100,000 during any year.

The Company has complied in all material respects with the terms and conditions of each Equipment Lease and, to the Seller’s Knowledge, all of the covenants to be performed by any other party thereto have been fully performed and there are no claims for breach or indemnification or notice of default or termination under any Equipment Lease.

3.21 Change in Control Payments. The Company does not have any plans, programs, agreements or arrangements to which it is a party, or to which it is subject, pursuant to which payments (or acceleration of benefits) may be required upon, or may become payable directly or indirectly as a result of, a change of control of the Company.

3.22 Insurance. Schedule 3.22 sets forth each material insurance policy (including policies providing property, casualty, liability, and workers' compensation coverage and bond and surety arrangements) with respect to which Company is a party, a named insured, or otherwise the beneficiary of coverage (the "Insurance Contracts") (true and correct copies of which, including amendments and riders, have been provided or made available to Buyer).

3.23 Brokers. No person will be entitled to any brokerage commissions, finder's fees or similar compensation arising out of or due to any act of the Company, or Seller in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

3.24 No Encumbrances. Seller has good and valid title to the Shares, free and clear of all Encumbrances. When the Shares are purchased and sold hereunder and upon delivery by Seller to Buyer of certificate for the Shares at Closing pursuant to this Agreement, Buyer will have good title to the Shares free and clear of any Encumbrances.

3.25 Foreign Corrupt Practices. To the best of the Seller's actual Knowledge through the Closing Date, neither the Company nor the Seller nor any of their Affiliates or any of their officers, directors, employees, stockholders, agents, distributors or shareholders or other persons associated with or acting on their behalf (the "Group") has, and covenants and agrees that they will not, in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or in connection with any other business transactions involving the Buyer taken any action that could be deemed to violate the United States' Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

4.6 No Conflict or Violation. None of Seller's execution or delivery of this Agreement, or compliance with any of the provisions hereof, will (a) violate or conflict with any provision of its organizational documents, (b) violate, conflict with, or result in a breach of any provision of, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) under, or result in the termination of, or accelerate the performance required by, or result in a right of termination or acceleration under, or result in the creation of any encumbrance upon any of the assets of Seller under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any contract, indebtedness, note, bond, indenture, security or pledge agreement, commitment, license, lease, franchise, permit, agreement, or other instrument or obligation (i) to which Seller is a party or (ii) by which Seller's assets are bound or (c) violate any Law, except in the case of (b) and (c), for such violations, conflicts, breaches, defaults, terminations, accelerations or Encumbrances as are not reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect or where consent from the other party to the Agreement will be obtained prior to the Closing Date or the obligation in question will be fully paid off on or before the Closing Date.

4.7 Shares. Seller has good and valid title to the Shares of Company being sold to Buyer, case free and clear of all Encumbrances. ARTICLE V

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES RELATING TO BUYER

Buyer hereby represents and warrants to Seller as follows:

5.1 Brokers. There are no claims for brokerage commissions, finder's fees or similar compensation arising out of or due to any act of Buyer in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.2 Litigation. There is no Action pending or threatened that seeks to delay, limit or enjoin the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.3 No Claims. Buyer hereby further confirms that, effective upon Closing, it has no outstanding claims against the Company or Seller in relation to any matter and there are no monies or other obligations owing from the Company or Seller to Buyer.

5.4 Organization and Qualification. Buyer is a company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of California.

5.5 Authorization. Buyer has all requisite corporate power and authority, and has taken all corporate action necessary, to execute and deliver this Agreement, and to perform its obligations hereunder. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Buyer and is the legal, valid and binding obligation of Buyer, enforceable against Buyer in accordance with its terms, subject to general principles of equity and except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws of general application relating to creditors' rights generally.

5.6 No Conflict or Violation. None of Buyer's execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement, or compliance with any of the provisions hereof, will (a) violate or conflict with any provision of Buyer's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, (b) violate, conflict with, or result in a breach of any provision of, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) under, or result in the termination of, or accelerate the performance required by, or result in a right of termination or acceleration under, or result in the creation of any encumbrance upon any of the assets of Buyer under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any contract, indebtedness, note, bond, indenture, security or pledge agreement, commitment, license, lease, franchise, permit, agreement, or other instrument or obligation (i) to which Buyer is a party or (ii) by which Buyer's assets are bound or (c) violate any statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, code, order, judgment, ruling, writ, injunction, decree or award (as to which no representation is made), except in the case of clauses (b) and (c), for such violations, conflicts, breaches, defaults, terminations, accelerations or Encumbrances as are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on Buyer's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI

INDEMNIFICATION

6.1 Survival of Representations. The representations and warranties of the Parties contained herein shall survive the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement for the period ending 540 days after the Closing Date except for the representations and warranties set out in Sections 3.3, 3.18, 3.24, 4.2, 4.3, 4.5, 4.6(a), 4.7, 5.2, 5.5 and 5.6(a) hereof (the "Designated Sections"), which shall survive the Closing and continue in full force and effect indefinitely (each of the periods set out in this Section 6.1 during which the representations and warranties shall survive and continue in full force and effect shall be referred to as a "Survival Period"), . No claim for breaches of representations and warranties may be made after the applicable survival period expires.

6.2 Indemnifications. Seller shall indemnify, save and hold harmless Buyer, its Affiliates, directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (for purposes of this Article VI, all of which shall constitute "Buyer" and to the extent of entitlement for indemnification, may be herein referred to as a "Buyer Indemnified Party") from and against all costs, losses, liabilities, obligations, damages, lawsuits, claims, demands, and expenses (whether or not arising out of Third Party Claims), including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and all amounts reasonably paid in investigation, defense or settlement of any of the foregoing (herein, "Damages"), actually incurred or suffered by Buyer through the end of the Survival Period and caused by (i) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Seller in this Agreement; (ii)

any breach of any covenant or agreement made by Seller in this Agreement which requires performance after Closing; or (iii) the operations of the Company prior to Closing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Seller will have no liability (for indemnification or otherwise) under this Section 6.2 until the total of all Damages actually incurred or suffered by Buyer hereunder exceeds $5,000 in the aggregate, in which case Buyer shall be entitled to indemnification for the entire amount of Damages. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or this Agreement, in no event shall Seller have any liability (for indemnification or otherwise) under this Section 6.2 for any costs, losses, liabilities, obligations, damages, lawsuits, claims, demands, and expenses, which in the aggregate exceeds fifty percent (50%) of the purchase price paid by Buyer to Seller (the “Cap Amount”) under this Agreement, provided however, that the Cap Amount shall not apply to breach of any Representations and Warranties set out in the Designated Sections.

6.3 By Buyer. Buyer shall indemnify and save and hold harmless Seller and its officers, directors and shareholders (for purposes of this Article VI, collectively referred to as “Seller,” and to the extent of entitlement for indemnification, sometimes referred to as “Seller Indemnified Party”) from and against any and all Damages actually incurred or suffered by Seller through the end of the Survival Period and caused by (i) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Buyer in this Agreement; (ii) any breach of any covenant or agreement made by Buyer in this Agreement which requires performance after Closing; or (iii) the operation of the Company from and after Closing, provided that Buyer’s maximum liability hereunder shall not exceed Fifty Percent (50%) of the Purchase Price amount and all interest, if any thereon, except with respect to Buyer’s obligation to pay the full Purchase Price, which shall not be subject to any cap.

6.4 Timeliness of Claims. No Claim shall be deemed properly and timely made (i) in the case of a Direct Claim, unless the alleged Damages shall have been actually incurred prior to the expiration of the Survival Period and (ii) in the case of a Third Party Claim, unless the Third Party Claim shall have been actually asserted by the third party prior to the expiration of the Survival Period.

6.5 Notice of Claims. If a claim for Damages (a “Claim”) is to be made by a Party entitled to indemnification hereunder (the “Indemnified Party”) against the other Party (the “Indemnifying Party”), the Indemnified Party shall give written notice (a “Claim Notice”) to the Indemnifying Party requesting indemnification and specifying the basis on which indemnification is sought and the amount of asserted Damages within a reasonable time after the Indemnified Party suffers such Damages for which indemnification may be sought under this Section 6.5. If any lawsuit or enforcement action is filed against an Indemnified Party, written notice thereof shall be given to the Indemnifying Party as promptly as practicable (and in any event within fifteen (15) calendar days after the service of the citation or summons). The failure of any Indemnified Party to give timely notice hereunder shall not affect rights to indemnification hereunder, except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party demonstrates actual damage caused by such failure.

6.6 Defense Against Third Party Claims. After a Claims Notice with respect to a Third Party Claim has been given, if the Indemnifying Party provides notice in writing to the Indemnified Party that the Indemnifying Party elects to assume the defense, at its expense, in accordance with this Section 6.6, then the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled, if it so elects, (i) to take control of the defense and investigation of such lawsuit or action, (ii) to employ and engage attorneys of its own choice to handle and defend the same (unless the named parties to such action or proceeding include both the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party and the Indemnified Party has been advised in writing by counsel that there may be one or more legal defenses available to such Indemnified Party that are different from or additional to those available to the Indemnifying Party, in which event the Indemnified Party shall be entitled at the Indemnifying Party's cost, risk and expense, to separate counsel of its own choosing reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnifying Party) and (iii) to compromise or settle such claim, which compromise or settlement shall be made only with the written consent of the Indemnified Party (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld) unless the proposed settlement (a) relates solely to monetary damages for which the Indemnitor shall be responsible, and (b) includes as an unconditional term thereof the release of the Indemnified Party from all liability with respect to such Third Party Claim. If the Indemnifying Party fails to assume the defense of such claim within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of the Claim Notice, the Indemnified Party against which such claim has been asserted will (upon delivering notice to such effect to the Indemnifying Party) have the right to undertake, at the Indemnifying Party's cost and expense, the defense, compromise or settlement of such claim on behalf of and for the account and risk of the Indemnifying Party; provided, however, that such Claim shall not be compromised or settled without the written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. In the event the Indemnified Party assumes the defense of the claim, the Indemnified Party will keep the Indemnifying Party reasonably informed of the progress of any such defense, compromise or settlement.

6.7 Subrogation. Upon payment in full of any Claim, regardless of how such payment is effected and whether it results from a judgment or settlement, the Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to the rights of the Indemnified Party against any unaffiliated person or entity with respect to the subject matter of such Claim.

6.8 Certain Benefits. The amount of any indemnification payable under this Article VI shall be net of the receipt of any insurance proceeds paid or payable to the Indemnified Party under any policy or policies of insurance covering the loss giving rise to the claim. The Indemnified Party will use reasonable efforts to collect any such insurance and will account to the Indemnifying Party therefor. The Parties agree to respond within a reasonable time to any inquiry by the other Party as to the status of any such insurance payment. All indemnification payments pursuant to this Article VI shall be deemed adjustments to the Purchase Price.

6.9 Exclusive Remedy. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the foregoing indemnification provisions in this Article VI shall be the exclusive remedy of Buyer and Seller with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing will not limit the remedy of specific performance, obtaining an injunction or other equitable remedy, which may be sought in connection with a breach of any covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement. The Parties acknowledge and agree that neither Seller nor GSK shall have any liability to Buyer with respect to any facts or circumstances that would constitute a breach of any of the representations or warranties made by Seller hereunder or pursuant to this Agreement if such representations and warranties had been made by Seller directly to Buyer.

ARTICLE VII

AGREEMENTS PENDING THE CLOSING

7.1 Conduct of Business Pending the Closing. From the date hereof through the Closing Date, Seller shall cause the Company to operate in the ordinary course of business and in accordance with past practice (except as it relates to transactions specifically contemplated by this Agreement) and Seller will not take any action inconsistent with this Agreement or with the consummation of the Closing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, except as specifically contemplated by this Agreement or consented to in writing by Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, Seller shall cause the Company to not:

- (a) amend its organizational documents or articles of association;
- (b) issue, sell, pledge, dispose of or encumber, or authorize the issuance, sale, pledge, disposition or encumbrance of, any Shares, or any options, warrants, convertible securities or other rights of any kind to acquire any equity interests in the Company;
- (c) extend, materially modify, terminate or renew any Material Contract or Real Property Lease, except in the ordinary course of business;
- (d) sell, assign, transfer, convey, lease, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of or encumber any of the assets of the Company, or any interests therein, except for Permitted Encumbrances, dispositions in the ordinary course of business and sales, assignments, transfers, conveyances, leases, mortgages, pledges, dispositions or Encumbrances involving less than $5,000;
- (e) cancel any of the insurance policies of the Company except where such policies are replaced by substantially comparable coverage with a new policy;
- (f) declare, set aside or pay any dividend or make any other distribution with respect to the capital stock of the Company.
- (g) make any loans or advances to any partnership, firm or corporation, or, except for expenses incurred by, or immaterial advances to, agents or employees in the ordinary course of business, to any individual;
- (h) increase the compensation payable or to become payable to the management, officers or employees of the Company;
- (i) grant any severance or termination pay to, or enter into any employment or severance agreement with any officer or other employee of the Company other than the employee and consulting agreements contemplated in this Agreement,
- (j) establish, adopt, enter into or amend any collective bargaining, bonus, profit sharing, thrift, compensation, stock option, restricted stock, pension, retirement, deferred compensation, employment, termination, severance or other plan, trust fund, policy or arrangement for the benefit of any current or former directors, officers or employees, except, in each case, as may be consistent with past practice in the conduct of the Business, contemplated by this Agreement or required by law or existing contracts; or

(k) enter into any agreement, or otherwise become obligated, to do any action prohibited hereunder.

7.2 Access. Until the Closing or the earlier termination of this Agreement, Seller shall cause the Company to afford to Buyer, and to its officers, employees and authorized representatives, such access, during normal business hours, to all properties, books, records and corporate documents pertaining to the Company as Buyer may reasonably request. Buyer shall hold and shall cause all of its Affiliates, employees and independent contractors to hold all non-published, confidential or proprietary information obtained from Seller or the Company in strict confidence and shall not use any such information other than as permitted by, and not disclose any such information other than in accordance with any confidentiality agreement between Buyer and the Company entered into in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby.

7.3 Notices and Consents. Each of the Parties will cooperate in good faith with each other and give the notices to, make the filings with, and use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the authorizations, consents, and approvals of governments and governmental agencies required to consummate the transactions contemplated herein.

7.4 Further Assurances. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained herein, each of the Parties hereto agrees (a) to use all reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (b) to execute any further documents, instruments or conveyances of any kind which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to carry out any of the transactions contemplated hereunder, and (c) to cooperate with each other in connection with the foregoing.

7.5 Contractual Dealings with Company and Affiliates. On or before the Closing Date, the Parties undertake to do the following:

(a) Seller shall cause the termination no later than the Closing Date of its employment arrangements with each of Claire L. Kruger, Nancy Booth, Katherine Brailer, Dietrich Conze and Yongming Lu (collectively, the “Employees”). Seller shall cooperate to the best of its ability, to the extent requested by Buyer to facilitate the Company’s hiring of the Employees as of the Closing Date. Following the Closing Date, Seller shall not seek to directly or indirectly enforce the terms of any noncompetition agreement, non-solicitation agreement, confidentiality agreement or other restrictive covenant it has with any of the Employees (collectively, the “Restrictive Covenants”) that are hired by the Company, to the extent such enforcement could reasonably be deemed to impair the Employee’s performance of his or her duties or obligations to the Company or Buyer. Should any of the Employees not be hired by the Company as of the Closing Date either as employees or independent contractors and should Buyer or the Company request that Seller cooperate with either of them in enforcing any of the Restrictive Covenants, Seller agrees to provide such cooperation and enforcement to the best of its ability, provided Buyer or the Company provides prompt reimbursement for all out of pocket expenses incurred by Seller in connection with the foregoing.

(b) Seller shall maintain in place a tail for its existing errors and omissions insurance coverage of not less than $1,000,000 individually or in the aggregate with respect to any errors or omissions by Company or any of its employees accrued through the Closing Date, which tail shall remain in place for a period of up to two years following the Closing Date (subject to payment as indicated below), and shall name both the Company and Buyer as additional insureds. Seller agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each of Buyer and the Company against any loss or liability either of them may incur up to $1,000,000 with respect to any errors, omissions or negligence of the Company or any of its employees or agents with respect to any acts occurring prior to the Closing Date. Seller shall pay for the first year of tail coverage with respect to the policy and should Buyer provide to Seller or the insurance agent responsible for maintenance of the policy the sum of $5,000 (or such lesser amount necessary to maintain the policy) on or before the first anniversary of the Closing Date, then Seller shall cause the policy to be extended or renewed for an additional one year period following the first anniversary of the Closing Date.

(c) Seller shall cause as of the Closing Date the delivery of all books and records of the Company to Buyer. Seller shall be entitled to maintain one copy of all of such books and records for archival purposes, subject to its confidentiality obligations hereunder. Seller shall cause the delivery of all software programs and software records used historically by the Company in connection with the operation of its business. Seller shall cooperate fully with Buyer and the Company in providing to the best of Seller's ability following the Closing Date any information in the possession or control of Seller or any of its employees (whether in written format or if known to them but not in writing) as they shall reasonably request regarding any of the historical operations or information pertaining to the Company.

(d) Seller shall complete Schedule 5.5(d) on or before the Closing Date to set forth a list of all outstanding projects of the Company as of the present date (the "Projects"). Any accounts receivable and unbilled work in process ("WIP") with respect to the Projects as of the close of business on November 30, 2012 shall, when and if collected by the Company, be paid over to Seller, after reducing such amount dollar-for-dollar to the extent of all "Deferred Payments" outstanding as of November 30, 2012. The "Deferred Payments" shall be the amount of Company deferred liability due to having received customer payments or deposits in excess of the value of the work performed on existing contracts as of November 30, 2012 (the aggregate amount thereof being the "Deferred Payments"). In addition, to the extent that Schedule 5.5(d) indicates that the Projects are ones requiring progress payments, effective as of the Closing Date, the Parties shall complete Schedule 5.5(d) to set forth their mutual agreement as to the amount of progress that has been made with respect to each of the Projects so that when the WIP becomes an account receivable of the Company, Seller shall be entitled to the payment allocable to such WIP. Should Seller receive any payments with respect to any of the Projects it shall promptly remit such sums to the Company, so that the Company may allocate such proceeds to itself or Seller as called for hereunder.

(e) Effective as of the Closing Date, Seller shall convey for no additional consideration to Company all right, title and interest that Seller has in the name and trademark “Spherix.” Seller agrees to cooperate with Buyer in causing the transfer of any state or federal service mark filings or applications containing the name “Spherix,” including the execution of an assignment of the Federal trademark “Spherix” (USPTO #3,109,602) and such documentation reasonably requested by Buyer or the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties agree that Seller shall be permitted to continue to use the name “Spherix” in connection with its affairs for up to one year following the Closing Date, provided that: (i) Seller shall make it clear to the outside world that it is separate and distinct from the Company following the Closing Date; and (ii) Seller shall cause its certificate of incorporation to be amended within one year following the Closing Date to remove the name “Spherix” from its corporate name.

(f) On or following the Closing Date, should Seller receive any correspondence or other communications from any person or entity regarding the Company or any of its activities: (i) it shall no later than the next business day forward a copy of the communication to the Company by e-mail in PDF format or Federal Express (if in writing) or advise the Company by telephone if the communication was oral; and (ii) it shall notify the communicating party in the case of an oral communication, of the sale of the Company to Buyer to the extent such communication would be deemed reasonably appropriate to preserve the goodwill of the Company. If the communication is of a nature that could be reasonably determined to require immediate attention, then Seller shall use its best efforts to notify Company or Buyer immediately of the communication.

(g) Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer and the Company from and against any and all claims for compensation by any of the Employees or other prior employees of the Company that have not been satisfied through the Closing Date, with the exception of accrued compensation for the period from November 16, 2012 through the Closing Date, exclusive of any severance compensation or other benefits to be received by such persons as a result of termination of their employment by Seller.

(h) Seller shall maintain the confidentiality of any confidential information that was provided to the Company prior to the Closing Date and which is known to Seller or any of its employees other than the Employees.

(i) Should Buyer determine that it shall need to obtain an audit of the historical financial statements of Company, Seller shall cooperate fully with Buyer and Company in providing such information in its possession or control, and in providing access to its personnel to cooperate to the fullest extent possible to enable Seller and the Company in completion of such audit(s). Seller shall not be entitled to any compensation in connection with the foregoing.

(j) Seller shall terminate any agreements between it (or any of its Affiliates other than the Company) and the Company effective as of the Closing Date.

(k) Seller shall cause the transfer to Buyer of the domain name registration for spherix.com, and shall cause the execution of all documentation required to effect that transfer with the registrar of the domain name and further agrees to cooperate as necessary to cause the transfer to be effective by the Closing Date or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable. Buyer shall cause its Domain Record A Locator to point toward the website maintained by Seller at www.spherix.com for so long as Seller maintains that website. Seller agrees to maintain a link on that website (for so long as Seller maintains that website) for Spherix Consulting, so as to enable persons inspecting that website to be able to link back to Buyer's website containing information about Spherix Consulting.

(l) Buyer agrees to cause Spherix Consulting to make available to Seller for a period of up to 5 hours per month (noncumulative) those of the Employees that were hired by Spherix Consulting effective as of the Closing Date, until the earlier of the first anniversary of the Closing Date or for so long as such persons remain in the employ of Spherix Consulting, in order to answer questions from Seller to the best of their ability in order to enable Seller to transition its operations without their services; should Seller require consulting time in excess of this time commitment, then the Employees will be billed to Seller at their regular hourly rates absent agreement by the parties hereto to the contrary.

(m) The Parties agree to cooperate with each other following the Closing Date to carry out the purpose and intent of this Agreement, including but not limited to the delivery of information and records and the execution of such documentation reasonably required to carry out the purpose and intent of this Agreement and the covenants contained herein.

ARTICLE VIII

POST-CLOSING COVENANTS

8.1 Further Action. In case at any time after the Closing any further action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, each of the Parties will take such further action (including the execution and delivery of such further instruments and documents) as either of the other Parties reasonably may request.

8.2 Expenses. Except as otherwise specified in this Agreement, each Party hereto shall pay its own legal, accounting, out-of-pocket and other expenses incident to this Agreement and to any action taken by such Party in preparation for carrying this Agreement into effect.

8.3 Publicity. Without the other Parties' consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld, no Party will issue any press release or make any other public statement relating to the transactions contemplated hereby unless required by law, regulation, court order or the rules of any applicable stock exchange or of any applicable regulatory authority and any such release or statement shall be subject to prior review by the other Parties.

ARTICLE X

TERMINATION

10.1 Termination. At any time before the Closing, this Agreement may be terminated by (i) mutual written consent of the Parties, (ii) Buyer, if there has been a material breach of a representation, a warranty or a covenant herein by the Seller, if such breach has not been cured within five (5) calendar days after notice thereof has been given to such other Parties; (iii) Seller, if there has been a material breach of a representation, a warranty or a covenant herein by the Buyer, if such breach has not been cured within five (5) calendar days after notice thereof has been given to such other Parties; or (iv) any Party if the Closing does not occur on or before December 15, 2012 (or such later date as the Parties shall mutually agree), unless the failure of the Closing to occur by such date shall be due to the action or failure to act of such Party seeking to terminate this Agreement, which action or failure to act constitutes a breach of this Agreement.

10.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1, written notice thereof shall forthwith be given to the other Parties specifying the provision hereof pursuant to which such termination is made, and this Agreement shall forthwith become null and void and of no further force or effect, and no Party hereto (or any of its Affiliates, directors, officers, agents or representatives) shall have any liability or obligation hereunder (except for any liability of any Party then in breach); provided, however, that the provisions of this Section 10.2 and Article XI shall survive any such termination.

ARTICLE XI

MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights or obligations hereunder may be assigned by any Party without the prior written consent of any of the other Parties. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and no other person shall have any right, benefit or obligation under this Agreement as a third-party beneficiary or otherwise.
